Seniors Promise Superb Entertainment

An artistic Japanese entertainment to be presented by members of the Junior Class in College Hall Friday evening at 8:15. Songs, readings, music and dancing will constitute the evening's program. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used for the Junior project.

"A Flower of Yeddo" is a picturesque one act play teeming with the favor of the far East. Two dainty Japanese dancers, by their skill on toe and heel will take us into the land of cherry blossom and pagoda. Japanese juggling, songs and readings will be so featured during the evening. The senior Japanese Follies gives indications of being one of the novel hoop events of the year.

Royal Rooters' Club Is Organized

The Royal Rooters' Club was organized last Monday by ten enthusiastic noise makers of the institution. The purpose of the club is to advise B. Y. U. activities by means of "tunt pulling" and organized yelling. Officers were elected and a constitution was adopted at the initial "pep" meeting. The officers are: Yellmaster (singer), president, W. Thorne, vice-president, and Harlan Adams, secretary and treasurer.

ROSH TEAM TO PLAY AMERICAN FORK LEGION

The Freshman five will journey to American Fork today for the first practice game of the season outside of their own domains.

First Appearance Night has been postponed until after the Christmas Vacation.

SPECIAL VISITORS TAKE PART IN FRIDAY'S PROGRAM

"Provo Has Not Yet Discovered Its Biggest Asset, The B. Y. U.," Says Judge Tucker.

The American Legion, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Provo were the special guests of the University at the Education Week program Friday. Dr. Black, state commander of the American Legion and a graduate of the B. Y. U. high school, Mr. Walter Adams of the Kiwanis Club and Judge James B. Tucker, President of the Rotary Club and a graduate of the B. Y. U. in 1912 addressed the assembly on educational subjects.

Special music was rendered by the band, male glee club, with Mrs. Hannah C. Packard and Mr. Richard Condie as soloists. Dr. Martin and the Ladies' Chorus.

WALTER ADAMS SPEAKS

Mr. Walter Adams of the Kiwanis said, "The quest of education has been the greatest achievement of mankind. The educational truth of today is the terminal truth of Jesus Christ. Business is just catching up to the eternal truth, it is better to serve than to rule; better to give than to take."

"Individuality distinguishes American education, American citizenship. It must be preserved through the schools. The Kiwanis are with the school, they will supplement and support it."

Judge Tucker made the statement that Provo has not yet discovered its biggest asset, the B. Y. U. He said that the town wanted to co-operate with the school and make Provo what President Harris said it should be, a college town. The Rotary club, he said, stood for service above self and the best service could render was the creation of an interest in education.

"We must be Americans in times of peace as well as in times of war," was the message given to the assembly by Dr. Black, "America recruited regiments, transported them over the seas, fed them, established hospitals, built ships. But what does the term Americanism mean? Americanism means a square deal, the working out of the golden rule. It is necessary that we do more than talk. The best and greatest government means cooperation, teaching and service. The government is just as big and great as the individual member."

Hoopsters to Appear In New Suits

The "V" basketball men, both Varsity and Frosh, are to have a complete new set of togs this year.

The suits are to be tailor made and two Spalding men, from Salt Lake; were sent for to take measurements of the prospective teams.

The suits will consist of blue jerseys and white pants. The regulation colors of the B. Y. U. The Freshman jerseys will have written across the front "Young" and under this the word "Frosh," thus distinguishing them from the varsity. Ten suits for each squad will be made.

The Spalding company has asked permission to display the suits in their show window at Salt Lake.

Pres. Brimhall Receives Bouquet

In behalf of the students, Miss Alice Ludlow, Vice-President of the Student Body, presented President Brimhall with a beautiful basket of flowers and a verbal bouquet in honor of his sixtieth birthday, last Friday.

The Faculty and students tendered congratulations to Dr. Brimhall and expressed the wish that he might have many more birthdays to celebrate.

BAND CONCERT TO BE EXCELLENT

The band concert tomorrow night promises to be something excellent. The organization of the B. Y. U. band is alleged to be much better than formerly and Professor Sauer is anxious for a large turnout.

Two of the assistants, Mr. and Mrs. F. Leslie Hickman, are former students of the B. Y. U., and have successfully appeared in concerts.

VARSITY PLAY "CLARENCE" WILL BE PRESENTED JAN. 13

Represents a Varied and Interesting Cast of Characters

The varsity play, "Clarence" which is now well under way, will be presented in College Hall on the evening of January 13. Enthusiasm among the cast members and a glance at the play itself, convinces us that the production is to be a success.

The play represents a varied and interesting cast of characters. Mr. Wheeler is a big man of big affairs. Mrs. Wheeler, a stepmother to Cora and Bobby is not a little jealous of her husband but feels that she has successfully won the affection of Cora.

Cora, the little sister who tells all the family affairs is a type very well painted by Tarkington. We find her at that whimsical adolescent age where she is outgrowing the jurisdiction of the government and the family in general.

Bobby Wheeler is nineteen and a Bobby created by Booth Tarkington needs little explanation. Like every boy who revels in the glory of his first "long pants" Bobby eagerly awaits the approach of "adulthood" and donning his father's spats, assumes the aid of "Now I'm a man."

His attempts to acquire an eye for business, are indeed amusing and supply some genuine humor.

Miss Pinney, is the governess. She is dignified and possesses a delicate sense of humor. Little wonder it is that impulsive Cora is the trial of her life.

Della is the clever Irish maid and Mr. Stem belongs to the category of celebrated grass widowers.

Clarence, a wounded soldier is the mystery man, whose identity will be solved in the thoroughly delightful comedy "Clarence," December 13.

Xmas Oratorio To Be Presented

The Christmas Oratorio, "The Holy City," which will be given by the B. Y. U. chorus and orchestra in the Tabernacle Sunday, will begin at 4:15 prompt.

The University is bearing the expense of books etc., so that this splendid oratorio may be given gratis to the public.

One More Day To Get Your Story In

All material for the next number of the "White and Blue," which will be issued December 21st, must be corrected, typed, and in by tonight or tomorrow morning.

It is the aim of the staff to make this magazine larger than the last and fill it up with short snappy articles. From four to five stories will be printed, and as many poems, essays, and plays as are of a high literary standard.

The judges, chosen for the articles of this issue will give the material contributed deep consideration. Each story etc., will be given a number by which it will be known to the judges who are as follows:

Short Story:

Mrs. Christian Jensen, Mrs. Elsie Carroll, Mr. Lowry Nelson.

One Act Play and Essay:

Professor T. Earl Pardee, and Bertha Roberts.

Poem:

Alfred Osmond, J. M. Jensen.

Cover Design:

Professor Eastmond, Professor Merrill, Arretta Young.

The prizes awarded are small in comparison with the honor of having an original contribution in the "White and Blue."

Paul Packard Gridiron Captain

Paul Packard, the man elected at the football banquet to lead the first "V" football team against members of the Rocky Mountain Conference, is in his Freshman year.

He comes to the school with a commendable record. For three years he played on the Springville High school basketball team and was selected as all state guard for the year 1919 and 1920. Packard filled the position of fullback on the Springville football team in 1920.

Frosh Trim Juniors

In a hotly contested fray, the (A) Frosh proved themselves the better men in the series game with the Juniors last Wednesday. The score was close until the last few minutes when the freshmen gave the finishing touches to the fracas, Score 23 to 18.

THIS SEASON'S HOOP SCHEDULE COMES FORTH

Arranged by Coaches en Route For Denver.

Rocky Mountain Conference rulings at Denver, during the recent conference, have brightened B. Y. U. athletic prospects wonderfully.

Coach Twitchell can now draw up on the practically inexhaustible supply of freshmen to fill vacant spots in the Varsity basketball team and supply the sub-line.

Coaches of the B. Y. U., U. of U. and U. A. C. while enroute to Denver to attend the Rocky Mountain Conference meetings, got together and arranged the following schedule for intercollegiate basketball, baseball tennis games and track meets:

Basketball—February 3, B. Y. U. at Salt Lake; February 11, Aggies at Provo; February 18, Utah at Logan; February 25, Utah at Provo; March 3, B. Y. U. at Logan; March 10, Aggies at Salt Lake.

Track—April 29, Aggies at Salt Lake; May 2, B. Y. U. at Logan; May 6, Utah at Provo; May 13, state meet; May 20, Rocky Mountain conference meet.

Baseball—April 22, Utah at Provo; April 28, Aggies at Salt Lake; May 4, Utah at Logan; May 11, B. Y. U. at Salt Lake; May 15, Aggies at Provo; May 22, B. Y. U. at Logan.

The tennis schedule is the same as that for baseball except that the Aggies play in Salt Lake May 16 instead of April 28.

Students Entertain

Friday evening the following students accompanied by Mrs. Algic E. Ballif attended the N. E. A. Ball of the Spanish Fork wards, Muriel Smart, Vilate Pierpont, Ina Creer, Gertrude Olson, Lynn Miller Billie Battle, West Parkinson and Ralph Keeler. Our students were invited to demonstrate the type of dancing popular at the B. Y. U.

Coach Roberts and Mrs. Ballif are endeavoring to set better standards of dancing among the young people of our church and a practical demonstration is one of the direct ways.

Along with the social dancing Mrs. Ballif gave a short talk on dance form and dancing as an art.

She illustrated the highest types of dancing by introducing Miss Vilate Pierpont, dancing the dainty Gavotte of Louis XIV and Muriel Smart the characteristic Fantango of old Spain.

Order For New Suits Postponed

Because of the recent rulings at the Denver Conference with respect to awarding official letters to football men only, it was necessary to hold up the order for new basketball suits until some definite design can be established to replace the block "Y" which has been used heretofore.

S. B. S. SEEK NEW HABITAT

The S. B. S. left their apartments on 179 East 8th North last Saturday and moved into better quarters. The organization is still intact and its promoters hope to make it permanent.

Dance Seems Too Short

The regular student body dance given Friday evening at the Ladies' Gymnasium, was accompanied by the usual good music and enjoyment which characterizes all "Y" dances. The only complaint made by the participants was that it didn't last long enough.

PROGRAM WILL APPEAL TO WIDE VARIETY OF PEOPLE

Week Is To Be Spent In Study and Pleasure; Everybody Is Cordially Invited.

Plans for the holding of a "Leadership Week" on the campus from January 23 to 28 have just been announced by the Extension Division.

The week is to be spent in study and in pleasure and everyone is invited. The program is to be such that it will appeal to a wide variety of people, including church workers, social and educational leaders, businessmen, homemakers and the public generally.

While the work will be handled under the auspices of the Extension Division a committee from the faculty has been appointed to assist the Director of Extension. This committee consists of H. R. Merrill, E. L. Roberts, W. H. Boyle, H. M. Woodward, and Ethel Cutler.

Each department of work to be taken up will be under the direction of a committeeman from the faculty. The divisions thus far assigned are as follows:

Swensen; Primary, Hermese Peterson; Social and recreational work, E. L. Roberts; Music, Florence Jepperson, Pageantry, E. H. Eastmond; Public speaking and dramatic art, T. E. Pardee; Clerical work, E. H. Holy; Home-making, Ethel Cutler; Priesthood problems, T. N. Taylor and Christen Jensen; Missionary work, Geo. H. Brimhall; presiding officers, J. M. Jensen; Business administration, H. V. Henderson; Health problems, Dr. C. H. Carroll.

Banyan Staff Holds Meeting With Publishers

The Banyan staff met the representatives of the printing and engraving companies last week and discussed the possibilities of publishing an especially beautiful and distinctive year book. Arrangements were made for the purchasing of the highest grades of paper and the handsome covers. The inserts, color sheets, division sheets, half-tones, and so on are all progressing rapidly.

It is now the students only who are hindering the year book advancement. The Banyan is making the last call for Freshmen and faculty pictures. They must be in at once if the Banyan is to come out on time.

Prof. E. H. Eastmond's Pageant Published

Professor E. H. Eastmond's Pageant, "Christmas Memories" is the leading article in the School Arts Magazine published in Worcester, Mass. Eight artistic illustrations, actual pictures of pageant staged by Professor Eastmond, accompany the article.

Class in Wrestling To Start

Notice of a wrestling class was given out some time ago in "The Y News." Well that class is to be put into tangible form this week. It will be under direction of Director Roberts himself and promises to be one of the most tempting bits of physical education offered in the B. Y. U. This year. You fellows that like an occasional tussle, get in this class and learn how to do it right.

A collection of pictures portraying Christmas scenes is being placed in the Art Gallery. One of the main features is a large reproduction of a painting by one of the old masters illustrating the quotation, "And when they were come unto the house they saw the young child with Mary his mother and they fell down and worshipped him," Math. 2:11.

"THE Y's GUY"

"The Y News" extends a hand of congratulation to "The Y's Guy" for originality of his name and the cleverness of his wit and caricature.

The "Guy" comes forth in eccentric excellence and the News feels that his promoters have rendered commendable service to the Student Body.

SUPPORT THE BAND

The B. Y. U. band has been working hard preparing for the concert to be given tomorrow night and their program promises to be excellent.

A strong music department is one of the greatest assets a school can have. Foster this fine art in the B. Y. U. by supporting the musical entertainment tomorrow night.

A GIRLS' DEBATING TEAM

An invitation has been received from the girls of the U. A. C. asking the girls of the B. Y. U. to meet them in debate. This shows a live, wide-awake attitude on the part of the U. A. C. sisters and is an opportunity that should not be allowed to pass.

To accept the invitation of the U. A. C. girls is one way of showing that determination. To live in the present, to know what is going on about you is a consolation.

But there is one other aspect of the matter which must be considered. Would a girls' debating team eliminate in any way, girls from the Triangle team? It is the opinion of some that it may leave that effect, which is so much respects would not be a good thing. However, as the matter now stands, it is worthy of consideration for this year at least, inasmuch as the Triangle team has already been chosen and the position of the girls is not affected.

CLASS MEETING PERIOD

If the period from 11:30 to 12:30 on Mondays has been assigned for class meetings, why should anything deprive the class presidents of it? To have somebody give you something and then arbitrarily take it back without your consent does not enhance your appreciation for the gift.

ORATORIO INAUGURATED

It has become a custom in the larger cities of Europe and America to present a Christmas Oratorio during every Yuletide season for the purpose of bringing the song of "Peace and Good Will" to every heart.

Every citizen feels these musical presentations essential to his or her spiritual welfare. They have come to recognize that just as the members of the family circle singing together the old, well-beloved songs are knit into closer unity, so the community chorus in Oratorios kindles and develops the community spirit.

It is the simple things of life that draw together people who seem to be separated by artificial barriers of race, caste and creed. The war has made us realize how slight are our differences and how real are the bonds that unite every American with every other. This sense of unity has expressed itself most naturally all over the country by a great outburst of song. Songs from the works of the most inspired writers are being sung with the reverence of their worship, and keen appreciation.

Provo has come into line with these larger communities. for the Brigham Young University is inaugurating this movement by presenting the "Holy City" Oratorio, in cooperation with the good musicians of the city under the direction of Professor Jepperson.

GET BANYAN PICTURES IN NOW

The Banyan staff cannot go down to the photographers and have your pictures taken for you part to ward a successful year book and it is by far the greatest and most essential.

The Banyan sends its contract for a certain number of pages. Every student who does not give his support by handing in his picture on time makes it more difficult for the staff to fulfill their contract. The Banyan staff hopes to demand the best workmanship in engraving and printing, but they cannot if the pictures come in late.

We have wonderful dreams for the Banyan this year. We want it to excel any year book in the West. Whether these dreams come true or not, depends absolutely on the Student Body. The Banyan staff is at your mercy, you promised to help them. Will you keep your promise?

Students, particularly Freshmen, and faculty members, are you going to let your negligence ruin the possibilities of a best Banyan? BRING THOSE PICTURES IN NOW!

TEMPLE HILL WILL WEAR VERDANT SMILE

Temple Hill will cease to stare down upon us with that old, forlorn, melancholy look it has worn every summer; it is going to greet us with a verdant smile; a lawn and flowers are to bedeck its brow.

The ground has already been leveled and the waterpipes laid.

The good work will yield a two-fold return: favorable advertisement for the school, and the psychological benefit that is invariably effected by cheerful environment.

Johnny—That scar on your head must be annoying.
Sam—Oh no, it next to nothing.

The hen returned to her nest only to find it empty.
"Very funny," she said, "I can never find things where I lay them."

Veda—Are you the same man that ate my mince pie last week?
Waldo—No, mum, I'll never be the same man again.

He—Mable, my hair is getting thin.
Mable—Which one?

"How long can a donkey stand upon one leg?" asked Sam of his friend.
"I don't know," answered his friend, "suppose you try and show me."

Mrs. De Close—Willie what have you been doing?
Willie—I bin skatin'.

Mrs. De Close—Nonsense! You haven't been outside of this house.

Willie—Well, I bin skatin' on make believe ice with the skates you promised me last birthday.

REFINED FOOTBALL

"I beg pardon, sir; I fear
My elbow caught you in the nose."
"Don't mention it, I beg of you;
I hope I have not mashed your toes."

"Dear me! I must apologize, Pray let me help you to your feet."
"I thank you sir. Let me commend Your tacklink; 'twas extremely neat."

"I've bruised your jaw—believe me,
sir,
I do regret such sad-mischance."
"A trifle pritheer, take my arm; I'll lead you to the ambulance."

"Your ear, I think, sir—I am grieved;
I have been rather rough, I fear;
Will courtesies like these be heard
When "Y" and "Utah" meet next year?"

Judge—If I grant you this divorce will you marry again?
Applicant (blushing)—Oh, Judge,
this is so sudden!

Pat—Say, Mike, did yez hear about that big fiddler dying? He thought so much of his violin that he had it buried with him.
Mike—No, yez don't name it? It's a dom good thing he didn't play a piano.

Reproach—If you'd had the tiniest bit of love for me you wouldn't have married me!

Mrs. X (quarreling)—And what would you be now if it hadn't been for my money?
Mr. X, (calmly)—A bachelor, my dear.

Friend—Are your poems widely read?
Poet—Well the last one I wrote was read by more than fifty editors.

Young wife—The trained nurse is going to teach me how to give the baby a bath.
Young husband (anxiously)—Don't you think we had better send out and hire another baby?

For Christmas Day, the Christmas

Is kneaded high and kneaded low.
Punch it thick and punch it thin,
Flatten it out with the rolling pin.

For lovely, skoodgy, Christmas dough.

The woman candidate—Gentlemen,

"But your father must have some

"Come, come, what is he?"
"Please, sir, he's a retired bankrupt", bleated the budding George Wash-

Your feet can hardly hold still while THE CHENEY plays a lively dance record. It has "the swing," the lilt, the persuasion, that makes it such pleasure to dance to real music.

There is no trouble "keeping time to the music" when the time is kept so steady by THE CHENEY motor. You will find genuine enjoyment in dancing without the actual orchestra.

For THE CHENEY plays with both rhythm and volume. Let us show you how THE CHENEY tone adjuster, reproducer, tone arm, acoustic throat, orchestral chambers and violin resonator all help make its music ideal for dancing and general entertainment. If you cannot call, write us for the interesting CHENEY booklet.

Alumni Notes

GUY V. CUTLER

"The B. Y. U. holds a cherished place in my memory. Her place is secure. No school could ever take quite such an intrinsic hold upon my affection."

Guy is now Principal of the Big Horn Academy, Lovell, Wyoming.
He has been located there practically ever since taking his M. A. from the University of Utah.

While at the B. Y. he was a prominent debater, also a member of the La Junta Debating Society.

JOSIAH E. HICKMAN

Mr. Hickman is now one of the foremost insurance men of the intermountain country. Before entering the insurance game he was a prominent educator and teacher both in Utah and elsewhere.

After leaving the "Y" with a B.
S. degree Mr. Hickman went to the University of Michigan, (L. B. B. S.) and later to Columbia University where he received his A. M. and did considerable toward the degree of Ph.
D.

Mr. Hickman has been principal of Millard Stake Academy, Principal of Ogden Stake Academy, Professor of Physics in the B. Y. U., Principal of Beaver Branch of the B. Y. U., Prof. of Normal School in the B. Y. C., and was for several years regent of the University of Idaho.

Mr. Hickman has had several Profes-sorships offered him lately and has refused them all for the insurance business.

"Success to your work and the B.
Y. U. I hope to see it the greatest and truest spiritual school in the world."

JAMES H. CLARKE

"I always hold the school, its ideals and achievements in the highest respect, and may the highest anticipations of its alumni be realized in its future success," are the sentiments expressed by Mr. Clarke.

Mr. Clarke is now Postmaster of American Fork, Utah. He has always been an active citizen of that city, being school trustee, City Councillor Mayor, President Y. M. M. I. A. and is now Councillor to the President of Alpina Stake. Mr. Clarke was for fifteen years superintendent of the American Fork Co-op store.

"Dr. Stratton constantly tells how disgusting these things are which he is asi m rdieu upeuputpums.
They are disgusting, and no preacher should discuss disgusting things in public in this way."

Mother—"Do you feel timid about asking Jack for money, dear?"
Daughter (a quite new bride)—
"No, mother, but he seems rather timid about giving it to me."

"What is a budget?"
"Well, it is a method of worrying before you spend instead of afterward."

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. John M— was the scene of a beautiful wedding yesterday when their daughter Margaret was joined in holy deadlock to Mr. David P—."

"Pop, what is a standing joke?"
"A Ford car with a flat tire, son."

Paster—I shall speak on Married Life" at the morning service and "Eternal Punishment" in the evening.
Voice from the rear—Aw don't repeat yourself.

"I wonder how many men will be made unhappy when I marry?"
"It all depends upon how many times you marry."

She (pensively)—Before we married you declared you loved me at first sight!"
The Brute—Well, I wish I'd been gifted with second."

"How did that bad little boy of yours get hurt?"
"That good little boy of yours heaved a rock at him."

"You look tired!"
"Well, it's hard work carrying a hod of bricks up to the third story."
"Have you been doing it long?"
"No—I start tomorrow!"

Mrs. Brown—"I hear the Vicar thinks your daughter has a real genius for reciting, Mrs. Smith." Mrs. Smith—"Yes. All she wants, he says to me, is a course of electro-cution just to finish 'er off like."

"U" Entertains Big Intentions

The University of Utah intends to wipe out its football defeat in a basketball victory. According to Coach Fitzpatrick there are six letter men available and they have their eye on the state penant.

The only position on the team that is in question is that of center but if necessary last year's captain, Mart Harris, will play this position. The other aspirants for positions are: Forwards, Elmer Dean, and Floyd Romney; guards, McKinley Oswald, Glen Watkins, and Mac Swan; all of whom are veteran players.

Basketball practice has been carried on for over a week at the "U" and the main team will be picked as soon as the coach returns from the conference. It is thought by many that the "U" has an "unbeatable" team, but equal authorities have different ideas. At any rate, the state games will create some real interest this year.

AGGIES RETRENCH IN EXPENDITURE

Utah Aggies—In order to eliminate extravagant expenditures in these stringent times all plans for decorations decided upon by school organizations must be passed upon by a member of the faculty before they can be carried out.

These measures were taken by the student executive committee because of the usual tendency of one organization to out do each other in the matter of decorations for dances and parties.

Geniuses may go about unshorn, but don't try to measure all men's

FROSH HOOP MATERIAL ABUNDANT

Utah Aggies, December 12—An over abundance of Frosh hoop material this year will necessitate elimination games between four teams which taken collectively consist of thirty-five men.

The teams will be paired off and two games will be played in which two squads will be eliminated. The winners of these "tilts" clash and the victors of this game will represent the Freshmen throughout the year.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

Utah Aggies—The second annual Athletic Banquet, at which 125 athletes, local business men and prominent men connected with the college will be guests of honor, will be held on the evening of December 19th.

Reservations at $2.00 per plate will be made for all male members of the students body who desire to attend.

Training School to Present Operetta

The children of the Training school of the B. Y. U. will present the opera, "Merry Christmas" on Wednesday, December 28th in College hall. The operetta will be given early in the evening so that it will not interfere with the Student Body dance.

Light-headed men are welcome at afternoon teas, because they never

The 1921-22 Intercollegiate Editorial Contest

Chicago, Ill., (Special)—In order to arouse the active support of every male undergraduate in the United States and Canada to Liberal Arts courses, and to refute the popular claim that a four-year cultural course is time mis-spent, Pi Delta Epsilon, Honorary Collegiate Journalism Fraternity, has announced as the subject for its 1921-22 Intercollegiate Editorial Contest, "The Practical Value of a Cultural Education."

Thousands of editorials on this subject are expected, for the contest will, this year, be open to every male university of the United States and Canada. Because great interest in this subject has been manifested of late and because of the fact that Pi Delta Epsilon will award its coveted gold, silver and bronze medals to the prize-winners, as well as its Certificates of Merit to first-prize winners in each college and university represented, an exceptionally large number of entries is expected.

HARDING TO MAKE AWARDS
President Warren G. Harding, a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, and a former editor and present owner of the Marion (Ohio), "Star," will represent the fraternity in the presentation of awards. Three prominent metropolitan newspaper editors will act as final judges.

Nation-wide publicity will be given the 1921-22 contest through the Associated Press and other news-gathering media, and the prize-winning editorials will be released in mimeographed form, simultaneously, to every college, university and daily metropolitan newspaper in this country and Canada, together with photographs of the winners.

CONTEST DOUBLE IN SCOPE
This year, Pi Delta Epsilon's contest will be double in scope. A local contest will be conducted at every college and university, and each first prize winner will receive a Certificate of Merit of the fraternity, and will be eligible to submit his editorial in the national contest. Three prize winners in the national contest will receive the Pi Delta Epsilon medals.

CONTEST RULES
(1) Contest will open December 3, 1921 and will close February 15, 1922, at midnight; (2) Editorials submitted may not exceed 500 words; (3) Type, or write legibly on one side of sheet only; (4) Write an assumed name in upper left corner of each sheet; (5) On the face of an envelope, write this assumed name, enclosing a sheet of paper on which is written your own name, age, home city, class and local address and telephone number, and seal envelope, pinning or clipping it to your editorial.
The local committee will number each editorial, upon receipt, as an additional check on the identity of its author.

LOCAL COMMITTEE

The following faculty representatives have been named by the Editorial Committee of Pi Delta Epsilon to supervise the contest at this institution: J. M. Jensen, 277 East 3rd North, Phone 186-R; Lowry Nelson, B. Y. U., Provo; Harrison Merrill, B. Y. U., Provo.

SIGNIFICANCE OF CONTEST
Philip C. Pack, Grand Editor of the fraternity, in commenting on the contest, said, "We fully expect 5,000 entries. In the past, our chapters have conducted local editorial contests and we base this estimate upon the results those local contests obtained. It will be an event of national interest, especially among the nation's college men and women."

Speeches and Music in Wednesday's Devotional

At devotional Wednesday the Student Body was entertained by Professor and Mrs. Andelin. The rendition of "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" was very well received. Mrs. Andelin played "Trebels" and "Country Dance" in a very masterful manner.

President Brimhall was called upon to address the assembly, and in his usual inspirational manner, spoke on success. Said Dr. Brimhall, "The ability to do the common things in an uncommon manner brings success. This truth may be applied to any field of endeavor. One becomes great by getting over into the field of margins."

At this point Superintendent Benion who had been detained, came on the stand to continue his series of lectures on "Comparative Religions." "In comparing the Catholics with the Latter Day Saints," he said, "the Catholic Church in organization is

ART SERVICE CLUB

Preparations for the Art Carnival were discussed at a meeting of the officers of the Art Service Club held Friday afternoon. This ball will undoubtedly be one of the biggest of the year's activities and the committee to have charge of the affair will be appointed at the next meeting of the club. This organization also intends to have regular "art" lectures and to conduct several exhibits throughout the year.

B. Y. U. WOMEN

Mrs. M. P. Henderson entertained at the B. Y. U. Women's meeting, December 10th at 4:00 p. m. with a review of the lives and works of "Deane, Richardson and Fielding." The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Taylor. The hostesses besides Mrs. Taylor were, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Larsen and Mrs. Poulson.

The committee in charge of the evening entertainment for December 31, decided to give a reception to the patrons of the school.

CLOTHO

Tuesday at the Clotho Club meeting Miss Louise Dasturp read an original story which the club discussed and criticized. The meeting was held in the faculty room at 4:30.

LADIES' GLEE CLUB

The Ladies' Glee Club are preparing an Operetta which will be presented early in the New Year.

Members of the S. B. S. informally entertained a few guests Friday night after the dance. The affair was in commemoration of the departure of the members to a new place of abode.

Y. E. A.

A special lecture on the subject of "Citizenship with Regard to Americanization" was delivered by Professor Swenson before the members of the Y. E. A. last Friday afternoon. A treat of real educational value was enjoyed by these present.

After the lecture a business meeting was held in which the following officers were elected for the winter quarter:

President, John McConkie.
Vice President, Mary Harris.
Secretary, Vida Fugall.
Treasurer, Lyle Glazier.

It was decided that only those who held a membership card in the association and completed the course as outlined by the Educational Department would have the privilege of wearing the Y. E. A. pin.

very similar to the Mormon. They have the parish, the diocese, and one head of the Church in all the world. These compare to the wards and stakes of the Latter Day Saint Church.

"In the Catholic Church the Priest is the great presiding officer, while the laity are given opportunity to serve. This means that about an average of one hundred people may develop along ecclesiastical lines in the place of one trained expert.

On ideals, Superintendent Benion said, "The Catholics may look with pride upon the work of their hospitals and charitable institutions. The Latter Day Saints also believe in and uphold these units of service.

'Y' BASKETBALLERS
ARE VERY OPTIMISTIC

It is said that there is no one so optimistic as the base-ballers and no one so pessimistic as the foot-ballers. The "Y" basketballers have struck a happy medium. Coach Twitchell has some good material with which to build a strong team, but the coach is not trying to "kid" us into believing that all hope is gone. Every night since the official opening of this sport, hard work has been the outstanding feature.

The Varsity squad has not been picked, but Twitchell keeps pretty well what men he can count on.

BURT PAGE BACK THIS YEAR

The Coach nearly suffered an attack of palpitation of the heart when he came across Burt Page a "Y" basketball star, in the registrar's office the other day.

Page is one of the strongest guards the B. Y. U. has produced and he comes at a time when it is needed most, for the guard line had thus far been an unsolved problem to the hoopers.

PRACTICALLY A NEW TEAM

Only two of last year's team are back this year, Ken Weight and Russ Swenson. However, it's nice to know that there are three other "Y" men out to take the place of those who are gone. They are Ralph Keeler, Glen Simmons and Burt Page. It seems that they must have been made to order, they fit in the team so nicely. Leo Meredith of American Fork is another find that is doing good work.

FROSH PRESENT PROBLEM

Practically all of the Springville, American Fork, Lehi and B. Y. U. high school teams besides a number of others, are in the Frosh bunch, from which the Coach must choose a team to meet the Frosh teams of other colleges. There are at least 15 men competing for a place on the squad and each seems to be determined to have a place if hard work counts for anything.

PROF. MADSEN LECTURES

Professor Franklin Madsen lectured in the Provo High school last Wednesday. His subject was "The Power of Music." He related instances where music has been applied as a healing balm to the distressed, the afflicted and the wounded. He compared music to the angelic nurse on the battlefield. "It ministers solace and peace to the wounded pilgrim on the highway of life."

Professor Madsen compliments the Provo High on the fine discipline and appreciation they manifest.

"They also believe in education, but their illiteracy is seventy per cent as compared with less than ten per cent in Mormonism."

In conclusion the speaker said to the audience, "You must be the argument in favor of our Church. Your lives must be sweet, that all people may see that our Church is functioning in the social and spiritual development of mankind."

A friend was once talking with a crazy woman, when a stingy man passed.

"Do you see that man?" said she, with a cunning smile. "You could blow his soul through a hummingbird's bill into a mosquito's eye and the mosquito wouldn't wink."

Dr. Sun Yat Sen is by all odds most interesting man in all China; season and out of season he has for true democracy in China; age, conservatives and militarists, at times at the expense of his life.
